Mr. Wise, on Monday, introduced a resolution and every member of that House required a full investigation into the matter.

Several members opposed the passage of the resolution, and proposed as sinendment, that instead of appointing a committee of investigathe member implicated in his communication. Upon this, a long and very excited discussion followed, but on Monday, nothing was done. On Tuesday the subject was again brought up. The resolution of Mr. Wise was not adopted, for the reason that the individual implicated hight be a member of the Senate, in which case the House would have no jurisdiction over the matter. It was therefore decided to bring the "Spy" before the House. Mr. Davis appeared. He protested in a calm and dignified manner against the mode by which he had been arraigned, declaring it to be in violation of his rights - a citizen of the United States. He expresred his willingness to answer at all times and inall places to any charge that might be brought mgainst him but said that, for the preservation of the rights and privileges of those who should succeed him, he was not ready to submit to a procedure which he deemed illegal and unconstitutions.

The first question asked Mr. Davis was "Are you the author of the charge alluded to?" To governed by parly spirit, and not by principle. this question Mr. Davis made a written reply, The law and the constitution, in the letter, were both against him, but happy man! alsequesting that it might be recorded upon the journals of the House. The third question was "Is he a member of this House?" The answer to this was that he was not, and here, of course, the matter ended, and the House adjourned, after two days of Sauch ado about nothing."

The correspondent of the N. Y. Express says, in his letter of the 13th inst. that it has been understood in Washington for two days past. that the individual to whom allusion is made in the accusation of "the Spy" is John Rusalns, Semplor fro.a Maisa!!

I (said Mr. C.) am among the number who, with certain qualifications, do hold to the doctrine of instructions. Let those who hold to the doctrine act consistently. Let in-structions come; and i hope, if the Senator from Pennsylvania receives his, he will be guilty of no evasion, but meet them boldly, and elther skey them, or resign and go home, and leave his place to one that will conform. And the Senator from New York, too, if Lam not misinformed, when he was asked what was to be done in relation to his colleavue, replied instruct him; if I am consectly informed, such was his to appoint a vieut committee of inquiry into language. I hope the instructions will come, the truth of the charge, with power to send for and come I am confident they will, from that persons and papers. He urged the adoption of source which gentlemen of the party say they the Resolution, saying that the honor of each are tound to obey from the People, and the representatives of the People. And Virginia, too; but, sir, I believe the party there is a hung ju sy. however, at the next election the people will order a venire de novo against the Sub-Treasury. And in the State from which the Senator (Mr. Grundy) this morning presented the resolutions; in the Legislature of that State the instructions tion, Malthew L. In the Senate of that State there were 18 to 7, and in the House of Representatives 39 to 19- ! the Musian law forty save one and very properly applied to such a system as this Sub-Treasury. And the great leading State of the West; that State to whose opinions we are all disposed to bow with respect she, too, declares her opinions in very intelligible language. How will her Senators act? Sir, I will answer for myself, that if instructions come from the Legislature of my State against this Sub-Treasury scheme, I pledge my word I will conform to them. (A laugh.)

THE CONSTITUTION AS I UNCERSTABLE IT ... Ratchiffe Boone the member of Congress from Indiana who boasted that he wore the Jackson collar, and was proud thereof, is going quite shead of his master in his theory of constitutional construction. In honest fairness, we do not suppose that when the "Old Man of the Mountain" proclaimed his intention to construe the constitution as he understood it, ha meant to say that on all occasions he would twist and turn it to suit any and every purpose of party, however paltry and b-w. But not so with Ratcliffe Roone. In can of the Mississippi elec-tion, he, of all his party, had the trankness to declare that his vote on that question was though sworn to support them, he had the privilege of quieting his conscience by suiting them "to his own party purposes!" But we The second question was "Bo you know the will quote exactly what Mr. Boone said, as given by himself in the Globe:

"Sir, I never will consent for any man, with or without a beard, to dictate to me what is the true meaning of the constitution and laws of the land. Happily for the people of this land of liberty, they are blessed with a constitution which permits every individual who shall take an outh to its support, to construe it in a manner that will give peace and quiet to his own conscience and constitution, and to suit his or their own party purposes. Sir, why insult the intelligence of the American people by exclaiming against the influence of party here, when almost every yote taken in this House, is 10 highly seasoned with party?

> SAVANNAH, FEB. 7. FROM FLORIDA.

By the arrival of the steamer Cumden, Capt Mills, from St. Augustine, we learn that a battle was lought on the 24 ult, on the Lachee Hatchee, (Lochee Hatchee) in which the Indians were defeated, though with the loss on the part of our troops, of nine killed and thirty wounded.

Gen. Jessup is among the wounded, having received a sovere flesh wound, said to have been in the face, Nothing is said of the loss of the enemy though supposed to have been great. Many valide, ponies, and liogs, with other property were taken by dur troops.

Since writing the above, we learn from Mai M'Lean, who is a passenger in the Camden that the prevailing report at Garey's Ferry on the evening of the 2d inst. an express arrived at Garey's Ferry, via Fort King, and it was reported there and believed that the express brought the info-pation that runners had come in and informed the commanding officer that Alligator and San Jones had quarrelled and had separated, and that Sam Jones with about 30 warriors had left Alligator.

The runners stated that the Indians would be comeing in at Fort Taylor in large numbers, ed-to 112 to 1. within three days.

counts are founded on truth, as the Indiana are generally scattered without leaders, some in small parties having recently been seen in the vicinity of Volusia.

Maj. M'Lean further states that he learned from the commanding officer at Garey's Fer. ry, that Gen. Jessup on thin with uit (subsequent to the action of the 24th) was at the head of the San Luca River on a large fresh trail, with well founded hopes of overtaking the en-

St. Augustine Feb. 3. News received from Gen. Jessup's Army by TX. press this maining. The substance of a letter Pierce dated January 29th 1838, says "Jessup has had a fight with the Indians. The Tennesseans generally behaved well." The number of the Indians is considerably more than has been supposed. The Indiana' loss is very triffing, as far as has been ascertained; their provisions, cattle and ammunition, ascertained to be plenty They never have fought on fair terms; in ev ery fight-except Capt Powerl's, they have had the advantage of ground. "There, they had it in numbers, but came out into open ground. Jessup fought across a creek, and after the action discovered that his force was sufficient to have sarrounded their position, which from the information I have received, cannot cover more than ten acres at ground. They had holes morticed in the trees, pickets set up, and palattoes act up-so to nove- " und form billion, and had sup attacked theak which exposed his men alingether without their recing the enemy."

NEW AND VALUABLE SCHOOL BOOK!

THE attention of School Committees, Teachers and Parents, is invited to the examination of the "JUVENILE READER," a selection of easy Reading Lessons, by a Teacher, a new edition of which revised and corrected, we have just published. It is believed that the book is one which has been the ry much wanted in our common schools, and indeed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers. The compiler is a gentleman of known abilities, and long experience in his profastion. The process or this book, are chiefly so lected from popular works designed for youth, and it is believed, will have a healthy moral influence in those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a very low price and has been adopted in grown namy Colonda adh decided approbation, and having been stereotyped, is free from the dam-ger of having any alternations made in it, which is be greates Litouble with all school books.

Those connected with schools, or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it. SMITH & FENNO, _17 West Market Square.
